About Surface Design

SURFACE
DESIGN

The SURFACE Design Exhibition (26th -29th March 2018, Halls 4,5,6, DWTC) is the MENA's dedicated platform for contract business professionals seeking out the best materials for wall covering, surface interior and contract flooring projects. As part of INDEX Design Series, the event provides a premier platform for architects, consultants, interior designers, contractors and developers to network, partner and source their product requirements at the show.

- The 4th edition of Surface Design (formerly known as Middle East Covering) will continue to serve as a B2B place for the covering industry in the region.
- With over 200 international brands, more than 2000 products, the event will showcase a wide range of innovations in products and services including architectural paint, commercial carpet, ceramics, wall paneling, ceilings, decking, laminates, wallpaper and much more.

We have many projects both in commercial and residential sectors and so we absolutely must see the latest products and suppliers in the market. This year, the show has been great as we have met a lot of different companies and saw a big range of products and innovations
